

NSW SMALL BUSINESS STAMP DUTY EXEMPTION DECLARATION - GUIDELINES

What is the NSW small business exemption?

From 1 January 2018, NSW small businesses are exempt from paying stamp duty on certain types of insurance.

What is a small business?

A Capital Gains Tax small business entity (within the meaning of section 152-10 (1AA) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 of the Commonwealth) for the income year in which the insurance is effected or renewed. A small business is defined as:

You are an individual, partnership, company or trust that:

Is carrying on a business, and

*The business has an aggregated turnover* of less than $2 million*

**Aggregated turnover is your annual turnover plus the annual turnovers of any business entities that are your affiliates or are connected with you.*

What NTI Policies are applicable for exemption:

- Commercial Vehicle insurance - for a motor vehicle used primarily for business purposes
- Product and public liability insurance - insurance covering liability for personal injury or property damage occurring in connection with, or arising out of the products or service of, a business.

Instructions for applying for an exemption

To receive the exemption, please complete this declaration declaring that you / your client are a small business. Email the completed declaration to your local NTI office.

Please note:

- [a] This declaration covers all policies issued to you during the current financial year.
- [b] If you are uncertain whether you classify as a small business, please speak to your financial adviser.
- [c] NTI will place reliance on your declaration in charging the applicable insurance duty.
- [d] False declarations may result in penalties up to of $11,000 by Revenue NSW plus the insurance duty not paid and penal interest on that balance.
- [e] Revenue NSW may also be able to clarify your queries relating to the law and your obligations.
